The Washington administration announces that it will keep hands-off in the revolutions in the Cenertal American States. As we are already supplied with a canal route, that is holding us down a while, we don't have to help any more revolutionists "stand up as one man."

When a man has a partner in crime he doesn't know how soon the party of the second part will be helping the State to dissolve the copartnership. Be good and you will have no fear of State's evidence.

The Colorado Republicans declare that it is doubtful as to who will take graft. If there is any doubt about it, send for the Pennsylvania Republicans, who are always ready to take the benefit of the doubt.

It has been remarked that the Pennsylvania capitol grafters "take the cake." They ought to be ashamed to take the cake when they robbed the State out of enough money to get a corner on all the bakeries this side of the Mississippi river.

George Fitzalen Bronson Howard, the author, announces that he is 50,000 words behind in supplying his publishers with writings to be put in type. Howard is not half as bad off as some married men who are 110,000 words short in their series of arguments around the fireside.

The Hague Conference is in session, but Germany should not be expected to sit in the front row and look pleasant when the proposition is made for the powers to limit their armament. Germany has planted herself on a big slice of China and she does not know what time Japan may take a notion to notify her that the territory for which she displays such a fancy must be abandoned all the same as Manchuria.

Says the Marshville Home: "Those who have never witnessed a hail storm in which chunks of ice weighed a half pound can hardly realize that it was true. Nothing like it had ever been seen by our oldest inhabitants. To tell the plain truth about that hail, without exaggeration, sounds like a 'fish story,' to those out of the section visited by the storm." Some skeptic may smile at this, but when it comes from a source like Editor Johnson we can swallow the whole story.

TRAINS TO CONNECT

Important Conference Before the State Corporation Commission in Raleigh Yesterday.

THE RAILROADS COMPLY

Developments in Rowl[illegible] Case—Locate Training School [illegible]ty Folks Involved [illegible] Controversy—Cotton Meet[illegible]

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—The Corporation Commission held a conference today with complaining citizens and representatives of the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line, with a view of adjusting the differences as to the connection of the trains of the two railroads at Maxton and Pembroke. A. T. McCallum and W. F. Williams, of Red Springs, represented the complainants, and for the railroads there were Mr. W. H. Newell, for the Atlantic Coast Line; General Manager Hix, Division Superintendent Shaw, Judge Womack and Traveling Passenger Agent C. H. Gattis, for the Seaboard Air Line. The conference resulted in an agreement that the trains in question shall connect at Maxton at 10:25, and this will also bring about a satisfactory connection at Pembroke.

Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—There is a strong doubt about the Rowland trial actually taking place at the July term. Counsel for the prosecution and the defense both declare they are doing all in their power to get ready at that time but it is known that the defense purposes to procure depositions of quite a number of witnesses in other States as to the character of the prisoners and concerning other matters, and it seems that under the law such depositions cannot be taken until after the grand jury returns a bill at the July term. In that event, it would be impossible to have the trial at that term so that a continuance would be necessitated. If there is a continuance from any cause it is understood that the counsel for the defense will then immediately apply to one of the Supreme Court judges for a writ of habeas corpus.

A big Sunday School excursion is scheduled from Hamlet to Raleigh June 28th when it is estimated that nearly one thousand people will be brought here from Hamlet and intermediate points.

Thursday, June 27th is set now as the time for hearing the petition of citizens of Wake Forest Township by the Wake board of commissioners for the removal of the Wake Highway Commission for misconduct in office. This is one of the bitterest fights that has developed in Wake in many years and bids fair to seriously disrupt the county politics before it is over as a large element of Wake Democracy is rebelling against the course of the Wake Highway Commission which seems to be backed up by the board of County Commissioners, all Democratic. The closing up of two roads sonsidered important in the Wake Forest section and the opening of one substitute road that is not at all satisfactory to the "belligerents" is the cause of the trouble.

Members of the State Board of Education left today for Rocky Mount, that being the first point to be visited to inspect the sites offered as a location by the several Eastern Carolina towns for the East Carolina Teachers Training School. The board spent today in Rocky Mount and will go to Greenville tomorrow. As soon as possible after the return of the board the vote will be taken on the location of the school.

The Corporation Commission today heard the case of Foushee vs. the Inter-State Telephone Company, from Durham, in which Mr. Foushee and other citizens seek to prevent the telephone company from increasing the rates on business and residence phones in Durham. The matter was taken under advisement and a ruling announced later. The Inter-State company in Durham now is a combination of the Inter-State and Southern Bell, a merger having been made and competition abolished more than a year ago.

A call is issued for a special meeting of Wake County Cotton Growers to be held in Raleigh Saturday, June 22, when President C. C. Moore of the State Association will make an effort to carry through a movement for a bonded cotton warehouse scheme for Wake county. Nearly fifty of these warehouses are assured already for North Carolina.

SICK MAN WAS BURNED

Fire From Gasolene Used in Rubbing Rheumatic May Cause His Death. Caught From Lighted Lamp. Removed to Hospital.

Joseph North, colored, between 50 and 60 years of age, employed during the Winter season as a cotton sampler at the compresses in the city, was fearfully burned last night at 11:40 o'clock at his home in a double tenement owned by Mr. E. P. H. Strunck, on Fourth between Nun [illegible] Church streets.

[illegible]ad been sick for some time, a[illegible] other diseases had been a great sufferer with rheumatism. A colored woman in the house who had been taking care of him got down a bottle of gasolene about the hour indicated last night, and began to rub the man's limbs with the liquid, as this seemed to be the only thing that gave him relief. The room was tightly closed on the sick man and there was a lighted lamp some distance away from the bed where the patient lay while the woman ministered to his suffering. The fumes from the gasolene suddenly filled the room and caught with a mild explosion, communicating to the bed where North lay and burning him severely, especially on the legs and arms which had been bathed in the liquid.

The colored woman in her fright at the sudden fire ran into the street and was practically unhurt, but the patient was fearfully burned about the limbs and the face. He would have been burned up from the start, but he managed to drag himself out of bed with quilts around him and was on the porch in great agony when the firemen arrived in response to an alarm from box 46.

The fire was put out with only small damage, this being confined almost exclusively to the bed where the man lay. North was placed in the ambulance and sent to the hospital, summons having been sent by telephone from a nearby residence. From a superficial examiaation of the burns by the ambulance surgeon, it was stated that the wounds would probably be fatal. North is a well known colored man and is held in general high esteem by those who know him.

COMMISSIONERS MEET.

Favorable to Chamber of Commerce Request—Revise Jury List.

The Board of County Commissioners was in session for a couple of hours last night continuing the work of revising the jury list, which was begun June 1st, as required by law. While in session the Board received Chairman James H. Chadbourn, Mr. J. A. Taylor and Mr. R. A. Parsley, of the committee from the Chamber of Commerce, to further the 30-foot depth of water project as to the Cape Fear river, an appropriation of $500 being asked in addition to the $1,000 recently appropriated by the city in furtherance of the plan for securing concerted action toward this great State improvement. The committee was received very cordially in a conference on the subject and the question of legality was discussed in all its phases with the result that members of the Board expressed themselves favorably with regard to the proposition. The position was taken that the money was to be expended as a public benefit and looking to the improvement of a great public highway. Official action with regard to the appropriation will be taken at the next regularly called meeting.

The Commissioners present at the meeting last night were Chairman McEachern and Messrs. Robertson and Vollers. Considerable progress was made on the revision of the jury list and this will be taken up from time to time until the work is completed by July 1st, which is the limit required by law. The Commissioners think that the jury service of the county will be greatly improved in the revision of the list and there seems to be no gainsaying the fact that reform in this respect is needed.

MR. WALKER BEREAVED.

Father and Mother Both Dead at Home in Denmark, S. C.

It is a doubly sad bereavement which has come to Mr. Hermann C. Walker, acting general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in this city. A long distance telephone message to Mr. Walker Tuesday night conveyed to him the sad intelligence that his father was not expected to live. He left on the early morning train Wednesday for his home and yesterday the following telegram was received by a friend in this city: "Father buried yesterday. Mother will be buried tomorrow." A world of pathos was conveyed to the friends of Mr. Walker in these few words and he has the tenderest sympathy of all in the sorrow that has come to him. His father had been in poor health for some time and his mother passed away after an attack of acute gastritis.

Mr. Walker came to Wilmington from Trinity College something over a year ago, and has made a host of friends here. He was first assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association and upon the resignation of Mr. Dushan a few weeks ago was made acting general secretary of the Association. Mr. Ferdinand Duls is in charge of the Y. M. C. A. during Mr. Walker's absence.

AS TO STREET WORK

Board of Audit and Finance and Commission In Conference Last Night.

DISCUSSED THE NEW ACT

Repairs to Be Made Out of Current Funds By Streets and Wharves Committee as Heretofore. Much Preliminary Work.

At a conference of the Board of Audit and Finance and the newly elected Street Commissioners of Wilmington last night at the City Hall an agreement was reached as to just what are the duties of the latter body with respect to the repair work of the highways of the city, which has been in controversy for some time. According to the agreement reached, the Street Commissioners will have charge only of permanent work and the proceeds of the bond issue will be used only for that, repairs to be done under the supervision of the Streets and Wharves Committee of the Board of Aldermen as heretofore and the same will be paid for out of the current funds of the city by annual appropriation. The question of employes of the Street Commission was not taken up at all, neither was there any agreement as to salaries of the commissioners.

The conference was called to order at 8:30 o'clock, those in attendance being Chairman McQueen and Messrs. Yates, Wilder and Tiencken, of the Board of Audit and Finance; Captain Louis Belden, chairman, and Messrs. Heyer, Parsley and Brady, of the Street Commission; Mayor William E. Springer; City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., and Captain T. D. Meares, clerk of the Board of Audit and Finance. Chairman McQueen stated the object of the meeting to be that of defining the duties of the Street Commissioners with respect to repair work. Captain Belden read a communication from the Commission stating that under their construction of Sections 6 and 9 of the act, which had been studied very carefully by the Commissioners, none of the bond issue could be used for the repair of streets and that this would have to be provided for out of current appropriations; that the Commission had nothing to do with the repair work more than supervise it according to the language of the law. In another communication Captain Belden asked for the employment of a competent engineer to make a thorough survey of the city preliminary to undertaking the comprehensive system of street improvement, and also asked for the employment of a competent clerk with knowledge of bookkeeping to look after the clerical affairs of the Commission.

Following Captain Belden the city attorney was called on and gave his interpretation of the law, this differing from the views entertained by the Street Commissioners as stated by the chairman only in the matter of whether or not the word "repairs" would be "improvements" as given in the two sections of the act. It was held by the Commissioners that repairs had reference to restoring a street to its "former condition" while the word "improvement" meant building a street from its natural condition. However, the law required only that this repair work should be done under the supervision of the Street Commissioners and was not required to be done actually by them by contract as is the case with the permanent work. This distinction was threshed out at some length.

Chairman McQueen suggested the propriety of having the repair work done by the Streets and Wharves Committee as formerly in connection with the cleaning of the streets, for which teams have to be maintained anyway, the Board of Aldermen to make an appropriation for the work out of current funds and the bond issue to be used only in permanent work as suggested by Captain Belden.

Mayor Springer was called upon for his ideas of the arrangement and endorsed the plan as proposed by Mr. McQueen unequivocally as a question of economy and practicability. He took issue, however, with Captain Belden with respect to the cost of the same. He thought the repair work should be maintained out of the bond issue. Later he gave way to the other gentlemen in this respect.

Chairman McQueen after some further discussion said that it seemed that an extra appropriation would have to be made for repair work in connection with the street cleaning and the Street Commissioners could meet with the Board of Aldermen and have the understanding with that Board that they are to turn the matter over to the Streets and Wharves Committee. This was finally the agreement in the matter and it is believed that the plan will work well.

Mr. Parsley asked if the city attorney was expected to serve the Street Commissioners as legal adviser and if so what about the compensation, etc. This was discussed at some length but no action was taken. Mr. Parsley also asked as to the disposition of money collected from property owners on sidewalk improvements. The law prescribed that it would be collected by the treasurer and it seemed that it would go into the general fund. It was stated that this could be very easily applied back to the bond issue fund.

Several of the members of the conference asked what the Commission would need the $15,000 proposed to be loaned from the sinking fund for if the street repairs were to be made out of current funds and it had been decided not to lay any roadways until the water works and sewerage were down. Captain Belden explained that much preliminary work would have to be done and the Commissioners could not get in position to handle the bond issue unless some funds are provided for this purpose.

There was some discussion of the possibility of the sale of the first issue of the bonds and all took a most hopeful view of the situation, a clear distinction having been drawn between municipal bonds and industrials. Mr. McQueen believed that they could be sold at par or above at a rate of interest below five per cent. the limit prescribed in the law.

The Board adjourned shortly before 10 o'clock.

SNIPES HAS APPENDICITIS

Young Prisoner Removed From County Jail to Hospital For an Operation—Attack Not Acute, But May Be Dangerous.

Young Lonnie Snipes, charged in the Superior Court with the murder of W. L. Williams, a travelling man, in a house of ill fame in this city several months ago, was last night removed from the county jail where he has been confined since the shooting and has been taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital for an operation for appendicitis.

The disease manifested itself in the case of young Snipes night before last, when he complained to Jailer Capps of a pain in the region of the appendix. Mr. Capps and young Snipes each thought it was some trifling disorder at first and some simple remedy was administered, but yesterday morning he became worse and Dr. W. D. McMillan, county superintendent of health, was called. Dr. McMillan diagnosed the case as appendicitis, but before recommending an operation advised members of the family and asked for consultation with the family physician. Accordingly Dr. Burbank and Dr. McMillan visited the jail again in the afternoon and Dr. Burbank confirmed the diagnosis made by Dr. McMillan and an operation was immediately decided upon and arrangements were made to take the young man to the hospital. He was transferred there last night in charge of Deputy Sheriff A. T. Piver, the guard being necessary for two reasons; first, because the hospital would not receive the patient unless under bond and for the reason that Sheriff Cowan and Jailer Capps would have to be protected in the transfer. The young man is under bond of $4,000 for his appearance at the July term of court, a recent trial at the May term having resulted in a disagreement of the jury. It was stated yesterday afternoon that an effort would probably be made today to give the bond, so that the patient would be relieved of all embarrassment during the severe ordeal which he has to pass through in the operation. Messrs. Herbert McClammy, Marsden Bellamy and W. P. Gafford, attorneys for young Snipes, did not know of the attack their client had suffered until after arrangements had been made to transfer him to the hospital.

While the attack of young Snipes is not acute it was thought best to have him sent to the hospital at once so as to be put in condition for the ordeal. The operation will likely be performed today. His sisters and other relatives called several times at the jail yesterday in making the arrangements for the prisoner to be taken to the hospital and they seemed to be very hopeful.

PERJURY CASE DISMISSED

Star Witness "Skiddooed"—Other Offenders Before The Mayor.

Yesterday was the date set for the trial of Annie James, charged with perjury in connection with the case of the negroes who stole two buckets of candy from the Atlantic Coast Line several days ago, but owing to the inability to find Fred Henneger, the most important witness against her, without whose testimony it was impossible to make a case, the charge was dismissed and Albert Green, one of the negroes, charged with the theft of the candy was also discharged for the same reason. It was thought by some that Henneger was carried out of town or that such pressure was brought to bear on him that he left.

F. E. Reynolds and W. C. Suggs, charged with being drunk and down, were each fined $5 and costs.

Charles Gummer, John Willie and George McFarland, three pickaninnies, for throwing missiles in the street, were let off on condition that they pay for the window glass which they broke at the store of the Wilmington Grocery Company. The boys were originally charged with throwing stones but it developed at the trial the missiles used were turnips and onions which they had surreptiously taken from barrels in front of the grocery store and with which they attacked one another when the window was broken.

INSTITUTE CLOSED

Sunday School Workers In Session at Wrightsville Beach Conclude Their Session.

NUMBER OF GRADUATES

Those Who Completed Course of Instruction—Resolutions of Appreciation—Committee to Arrange for Next Year's Conference.

The third annual sessions of the International Training Institute for Sunday School workers of the Carolinas and along the Atlantic seaboard were concluded yesterday afternoon at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, where the gathering has been most elegantly entertained since last Friday morning. Most of the instructors and visitors left on the afternoon and evening trains yesterday for their homes while others tarried at the beach for a while longer. The morning session was taken up with an interesting discussion by Dr. Hamill, the dean, on "The Hebrew Prophets," followed during the second hour by Mrs. Hamill who treated the subject "Junior Boys and Girls." Mrs. Lamoreaux, of Chicago, also continued her child studies and a consecration and recognition service was held as the closing feature. Miss Hungerford concluded her classes in drawing and sketching and had the interest of the Institute until the very last.

A review of the work accomplished by the Institute is contained in the report of the committee of resolutions appointed on Wednesday evening. This report is as follows:

"Your committee after carefully studying the work and workings of the Summer School beg leave to make the following report:

"The enrollment of the School has not been equal to that of last year, but this is easily accounted for by the cool weather and the Jamestown attractions.

"The character of the work done, we believe to be the most thorough of any session of the school, yet held. A certificate from this school will mean more this year than ever before. The attendance has been interdenominational in its character.

"Dr. Hamill is to be congratulated on his success in getting together this year an unusually strong faculty. There has been a gradual improvement in the character of the instruction in the school. This year marks a distinct improvement. We wish to assure these good and efficient workers of our appreciation of their work and the real service they have been to us. We most heartily recommend the continuance of the school, because we believe its real value is just beginning to be appreciated.

"We also recommend that the thanks of the school be tendered to the press for their full and thorough reports of our school. Also the thanks of the school tendered to the management of the Seashore Hotel for their many courtesies. Also to the railroads for the liberal rates to those attending the school.

"B. C. GORHAM,
"J. H. FRIZELLE,
"W. B. COOPER,
"W. M. CUMMING,
"N. M. WATSON."

Diplomas were issued to 38 of the students at the Institute who took the full course of instruction and attained 400 out of a possible 700. The school issuing the certificate has been approved by the department of education of the International Sunday School Association and the diplomas are quite highly prized by those who received them. Those who attained perfect in their marks were Major B. C. Gorham, of Fayetteville; Mrs. H. E. Fennell, of Wilmington, and Mrs. E. P. Gatling, of Hallsboro. Others who received diplomas for having received the required proficiency were as follows: Miss Zula Bruton, Troy, N. C.; Miss Vivian Curtis, Paxville, N. C.; E. U. Jarrett, Burlington; Miss Norma L. Northam, Wrighsville; Mrs. Edward C. Craft, Wrightsville; F. B. McKinnie, Louisburg; Mrs. W. T. Braswell, Whitakers, N. C.; Mrs. T. N. Woody, Highfalls, N. C.; Mrs. C. L. Whitaker, Enfield, N. C.; Miss Mamie Bizzell, Laurinburg, N. C.; Rev. J. M. Bradley, Troy, N. C.; Miss Lizzie Dowdy, Laurinburg; Miss Frances Hungerford, Washington, D. C.; Rev. J. H. Frizelle, Beaufort, N. C.; Miss Jessie Curtis, Paxville, S. C.; Mrs. D. E. McKinnie, Princeton; Mrs. M. S. Lamoreaux, Chicago; Miss Scott, Goldsboro, N. C.; Rev. H. Bethea, Darlington, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Boyle, Greeleyville, S. C.; Mrs. E. Cavenaugh, Mrs. Maggie Cuninggim, A. S. Parker, Mrs. Alberta Bourne, Mrs. H. E. O'Keef, Miss Sue M. Boon, Rev. A. J. Parker, Mrs. E. L. Hart, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. Luther Avon Blue, Mrs. D. W. Bulluck, Mr. W. B. Cooper, Wilmington, N. C.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered to the North Carolina Conference Quartette for the excellent music djscoursed during the institute sessions.

Just before adjournment Dr. Hamill, Mr. W. M. Cumming and Mr. W. B. Cooper were appointed a committee to look after the details of the next session of the institute. It may be held here, though there is a movement on foot to get the meeting for Asheville, N. C.

EXCESSIVE EXPRESS CHARGES.

The New York World some days ago said:

"The Adams Express Company cut a $24,000,000 melon for its stockholders yesterday. The news was not announced until after the business day in Wall Street had ended, but the cutting will probably do something today in the way of knocking holes in the funeral pall which has overhung the financial district for months. Once before, in 1898, the Adams Express Company cut a huge melon for its stockholders. That was a $12,000,000 melon, just half the size of the one handed out yesterday. The $24,000,000 melon amounts to a 200 per cent. dividend distribution on stock. The capital of the company consists of 120,000 shares, which are generally quoted as at a par value of $100. Adams is a joint stock association which was formed in 1854. On a basis of 100 the 120,000 shares have a par value of $12,000,000, but the stock has a market value of $300 a share, or a total of $36,000,000. The $24,000,000 melon will be distributed in the form of collateral trust 4 per cent. bonds, just as the $12,000,000 was distributed nine years ago. For each share of stock a shareholder will get $200 in bonds."

The above figures look nice to the few stockholders, but they will put the patrons of the express company on notice as to why they have to pay unreasonably high charges on express, some of it hardly worth what is charged for carryig it. The Raleigh News and Observer gives us this instance of it as a North Carolina example:

"Two days ago a citizen of Louisburg happened to be talking to a friend in Raleigh about the extortionate express charges on mail packages. He cited an instance that a charge of 45 cents was made for carrying a small hand-satchel from Dunn to Louisburg, though the contents of the little satchel were worth little more than the express charges. Is there no remedy from high express charges in North Carolina?"

The Star joins the News and Observer in its anxious inquiry as to a possibility of relief. We also concur in the News and Observer's comment about the golden "melon" cut by the express company in New York, which cutting, by the way, Senator Platt, the express magnate, wanted to suppress for fear it would arouse public hostility. As to the juicy "watermelon," the News and Observer well remarks:

"It is because express companies cut such watermelons that they must charge the public two prices for carrying express packages. An express company is a public service corporation. It ought to earn fair dividends for its stockholders, but government regulation ought to be such that the public would have reduced rates on express packages before such watermelons are cut for stockholders."

PLANS FOR RELIEF OF MEAT EXPORT BUSINESS.

The publicity given to the measures of the government to reform the meat packing business in the United States played havoc with our meat export business. The Washington government finds the situation so serious that it is considering plans to restore the industry.

Continued and steady decline in the shipments of canned meats abroad has aroused discussion in Washington as to whether this falling off is likely to continue much further or has reached the lower limit. Coupled with this is considerable anxiety to secure immediate action that will tend to restore our products to their original place. It has developed that the Tariff Commission, which went to Germany last Winter canvassed this subject quite thoroughly with the Germans, and has made tentative arrangements for securing us a better entree—in the German market at least.

The falling off of the trade in canned meats may be seen in figures showing shipments from Chicago.

Advance sheets of the monthly summary of commerce and finance for April show that for the ten months ending with April exports of canned beef to all countries fell to 13,180,636 pounds. The corresponding figure for the ten months ending with April, 1906, was 57,117,796 pounds, and for the corresponding ten months of 1905 was 55,455,284 pounds. For April, 1907, exports were 897,175 pounds, while for April, 1906, they were 4,191,999 pounds.

The cause of the continued decline in the business seems to be the failure of consumers—especially foreigners—to comprehend the nature of the precautions that have been adopted by the Government for the purpose of guaranteeing sanitary conditions and purity in this branch of the packing house business.

SHEEP-KILLING DOGS.

The Sampson Democrat this week contains this item of news:

"Mr. J. D. Williams, of Mingo, was in to see us a few days since and reported that sheep-killing dogs had played havoc with the flocks of his section. Mr. W. I. Lee lost 35 sheep by them, and several others have lost many sheep by the worthless dogs, for the worthless and half-fed ones are usually the ones that do the mischief. When Mr. Lee had discovered that all but eight of his sheep had been killed, he put those in a pasture, and the dogs went in there after them, killing the last one. Now, who says that some remedy should not be provided by which the country may be rid of so many no-account dogs? Sheep raising would yet be a very profitable industry in this country, if protected."

The story told briefly above is one very common in the counties of eastern North Carolina, yet the Legislature can meet months and ignore legislation that would protect if not build up an important industry in eastern Carolina. Many sheep raisers in this part of the State find it quite profitable, but the greatest enemy to the industry is the sheep-killing dog. It certainly is discouraging to Mr. Lee to have his flock of 43 sheep entirely wiped out by dogs.

The market in Wilmington is supplied with Spring lamb of the most superior quality, raised by farmers in the surrounding country. They are advertised as "home raised" and that is done knowingly and confidently, for no product from "furrin' parts" can touch our eastern Carolina Spring lamb with a forty-foot pole. In failing to protect sheepraising the North Carolina Legislature is entitled to unlimited abuse and unrestarined contempt.

SAMPSON COUNTY HAS IT.

Sampson county has caught the spirit of the times and there isn't any use to waste ink in writing about what spells progress for that splendid county of eastern North Carolina, one of the best in the bunch. The Star will let the Sampson Democrat, of Clinton, tell about it this way:

"Dr. J. H. Pratt, of Chapel Hill, State geologist, met with the Road Commission here on the 13th for the purpose of instructing them on road building. His lectures are always very interesting and give much beneficial advice. Mr. W. L. Spoon, a government road expert, who is now at work in Virginia under the Bureau of Road Inquiry, will be sent down here very soon to give practical instructions in the work. The Commission is now at work to secure the machines and all necessary road equipments and expect to very soon be in shape to begin operations."

That is certainly good news from Sampson. It shows that her people are in earnest, and that they are showing a spirit that will bring the county out of the kinks. It is one of the most fertile and best timbered counties in the east, and good roads mean a big development for the county. The Star is rejoiced to note how Sampson county has gone to work to help herself. The step taken is the most effective way to do it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Edgecombe is always ready. Captain Paul Jones, of the Edgecombe guards, writes that his company will give at least two hundred dollars to the Wyatt Monument. When they get started they will do more, for Wyatt was a worthy member of that company.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—There is a fearfully solemn lesson in the career and ultimate ruin of Franc H. Jones. According to his own testimony, he found it impossible to resist when once the speculation-mania had found his soul with its cankering touch. This is an evil whose results are written almost daily in a record of crime, and it is an evil that is growing with alarming rapidity.—Charlotte News.

—The Greensboro Record is exercised about the big belt buckles that the women are wearing this season. It remarks that these buckles are anywhere from six to eight inches long and are worn in front; that they take the place of any and all kinds of braces for avoiding a stooping posture; that if one stoops much there is a punch from the uper part of the buckle and that it likewise has a tendency to punch lower down. The Record thinks it is a great pity this new style was not thought of years ago, as we might have had fewer stoop-shouldered young women, for if it is stylish to wear anything a woman will wear it, no matter how uncomfortable it may be.—Raleigh Evening Times.

—For some time we have watched with interest the proposed 30 feet channel from Wilmington to the sea. Wilmington deserves this important public aid from the Government, and the whole State should at once become interested and the business men of Eastern Carolina should fall in line with the business men of Wilmington in bringing about this needed port there. Wilmington would at once stand side by side with Norfolk, and with a coaling station, and a port like the proposed channel would bring to us would be one of the greatest steps forward that the South has witnessed since the war. The Cape Fear section is made up of a proud and great citizenship and it only needs now a channel sufficiently deep to let in any and all foreign ships. This will not only build a great city of Wilmington but it will give a lasting boom to all North Carolina. Men who love their State should take part in securing the appropriation from the Government to carry the channel proposition through as early as possible.—Kenansville (N. C.) Eastern Carolina News.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat, Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Trial bottle free.

It has been demonstrated that the Keeley Treatment positively and permanently cures the drink and drug addictions. Also neurastenia or nerve exhaustion and the tobacco habit. The management can refer you to cured men and women who have standing that will bear investigation. we fr su a pretty face, a good figure, but sooner or later learn that the healthy, happy, contented woman is most of all to be admired.

Women troubled with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, backache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations, cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. It acts at once upon the organ afflicted and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms. No other medicine in the country has received such unqualified indorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as has

Miss Emma Runtzler, of 631 State St., Schenectady, N. Y., writes:—"For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Chancing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of Female Complaints, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and is invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

THIRTEEN STILLS WERE CAPTURED

Wholesale Raid on Stokes County Blockaders by Revenue Officials. Little Army of Armed Men Invaded Their Stronghold.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Winston-Salem, June 19.—A long distance message from Mt. Airy tonight says that a squad of revenue officers, consisting of 27 men led by two secret service men from Washington, D. C., today made a big raid and captured 13 blockade stills and 10 men a short distance from Smithtown, in Stokes county, which has been noted nearly a half century for the number of moonshine stills and the extreme boldness and pugnacity of the moonshiners in that section. So bad has been the condition of affairs that revenue officers have been afraid to go in there and the stills have been doing a thriving business. It is reported that sentinels were maintained by the makers of the firewater who gave the moonshiners warning of any approach of officers by a large bell.

The raid today began at 4 A. M. and was not terminated till this afternoon at 5 o'clock, when the men and stills taken were safely lodged at Mt. Airy. The two secret service men who led the squad of officers are said to have come from Washington some weeks ago and since that time have been engaged with the men in the illicit business in order to learn the exact state of affairs and to find out how to capture those engaged in the business. Having learned this, a good supply of rifles was secured from Washington and the raiding squad was organized at Mt. Airy yesterday. From that place it marched to Smithtown and at 4 o'clock this morning the first raid was made, and nearly all day was required before the stills and men captured were landed at Mt. Airy, which is 30 miles from the scene of the raid. It is reported that several of the officers and moonshiners were wounded in the raid, but nothing can be learned at this hour as to the extent of these wounds.

Madison, N. C., June 19.—It is reported by 'phone from Sandy Ridge, Stokes county, that sixty-three revenue officers invaded Smithtown, a noted moonshine territory, this morning and that a fearful battle has been raging all day. Have been unable to obtain details. It is reported that blockading has been going on in this community for several years, open and above board, and that the participants have been practically unmolested up to this time. It is supposed that the government has decided to stamp out this business.

ANIMAL SAGACITY.

The Instinct That Leads the Ostrich to Protect Its Eggs.

The nature students—everybody is a nature student nowadays—were trying to outdo one another.

"Eagles when the sun is overhot shade their young with outspread wings," said the first. "On August afternoons I have seen a mother eagle stand patiently two full hours, her left wing spread like an umbrella, while in its cool shade her nestlings slept."

"Squirrels," said the second, "can tell whether a nut is good or bad without opening it. A chestnut, a walnut, a shellbark, they lift it in their little paws, hold it to their faces a moment, then if it is bad cast it aside. How do they tell? By the weight, by the sound? I incline to think they do it by the smell."

"Ostriches never sit," said the third. "They lay their eggs on the pale Saharan sands, and the sun does the rest. But before the ostriches depart from their eggs they place on the top of each a pinch of sand, for they know that the germ will mount to the top and that the sun's heat would kill the germ were it not protected."

"A trained elephant," said the fourth student, "danced very badly at a matinee performance and was accordingly beaten cruelly by its master. That night, hearing a shuffling noise outside, the master crept forth, and there in the moonlight he found the elephant carefully practicing its dance steps."

A PRIVILEGE RESERVED.

Ceremonies Witnessed at a Jeweler's Ring Counter.

"I want a plain gold ring for a lady. Best you've got in the store."

"For this lady?"

"Sure! Who else would it be for? Pull off your glove, Katie, and let the gentleman measure your finger."

The girl withdrew her woolen glove and bashfully extended her small hand, red and toil worn, toward the clerk.

"There, that's about the size," said the jeweler to the girl.

"Do you wish him to put it on?"

"No—not yet," said the blushing girl. "When he puts that ring on, it's on to stay."

Size, quality and price at last were settled satisfactorily, and the young man pulled from his pocket a shining coin.

"Here you are, gold for gold!" he exclaimed proudly. "Nothin' but gold 'll pay for that ring."

"Haven't you anything smaller?" asked the sordid clerk.

"Plenty, but nothin' good enough to pay for that ring."

"Bit of sentiment, eh?" queried an interested bystander.

"Oh, yes, sir," said the girl, with evident pride. "He's been saving that twenty dollar gold piece for nearly four months, waiting to buy this ring."

BLOODHOUNDS SCORE AGAIN

Negro Tracked to Earth in Pender Makes Full Confession.

The Star's news columns one day this week carried the story of the capture of a negro burglar in Pender by one of bloodhounds recently purchased by the county and kept at the jail in Burgaw. The store of Mr. F. P. Sidbury, near Ashton, was entered and Jailer Rivenbark and party went out from Burgaw with the dog and trailed the man into Mr. A. M. Bowden's field where he was at work. The negro was arrested and lodged in jail. The Pender Chronicle of this week states that the prisoner was given a preliminary hearing before Justice J. E. Durham and was bound over to the higher court, being recommitted to jail. He later made a full confession of the whole affair and implicated two other negroes, a man and a woman, one of which was also bound over. The performance of the hound on this occasion has struck terror to evil doers in Pender according to the Chronicle and the county has undoubtedly made a valuable investment in the animal.

Dog Pound is Full.

Officer Frank George, who is in charge of the dog cart, coralled a large number of pets yesterday and the pound at foot of Chesnut street is full of writhing, wiggling animals, the owners of which have been indifferent as to the payment of the required license. The dogs are kept 24 hours and are then disposed of by killing or otherwise. Five of the accumulation Wednesday were sent up the river on the steamer City of Fayetteville yesterday morning. Chief Williams has issued instructions that where owners tie their dogs inside yards to escape the cart, that the name of the owner be taken and that warrants be issued for non-payment of the license.

Two Fishing Parties.

The steamer Madeline carried a large party of local anglers around opposite Carolina Beach yesterday to what is known as "The Southern Rocks" for a day's sport at blackfishing. The luck was distressing. There were nearly a hundred on the boat, but not more than half that number of the "finnies" were caught. Another party composed largely of the clerical force of Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, went out on the tug Sea King and had phenomenal luck, more than a thousand fine fish having been brought in.

Mr. Covington Returns to Charlotte.

The following is from the Charlotte Observer: "The many Charlotte friends of Mr. L. E. Covington will learn with pleasure that he has returned to the city to live, having accepted a position with the Merchants and Farmers Bank, the institution with which he was connected when he lived here several years ago. Mr. Covington is an experienced banker, having been identified with the Southern National, of Wilmington and the National Exchange, of Roanoke, Va."

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, Etc., by R. R. Bellamy, druggist, 25s.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mrs. Gertrude Mace and children, of Centenary, S. C., are visiting relatives in the city.

—Miss Bessie M. Richardson, of Whiteville, is in the city returning from the western part of the State where she has been spending some time. She is a guest at the home of Mr. Jos. D. Smith.

—Mr. James F. Woolvin is having tiers of very handsome plate glass show cases installed in the salesroom of his pretty establishment on Princess street. These will be finished in oak and will present a decidedly attractive appearance.

—At 8:15 o'clock last night Messrs. John Thomas and J. F. Baggett were ordained as deacons of Southside Baptist Church. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. A. Smith and the charge was by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., of the First Baptist Church.

—By deed filed for record yesterday Thos. Lossen and wife transferred to the Carolina Savings and Trust Company, for $1 and other considerations, property on east side of Fourteenth, 132 feet south of Meares street, 66x165 feet in size.

—A letter from the M. C. Lilly Company states that the new police uniforms have been shipped and they should be here in a few days. The force will be furnished with the suits as soon as they arrive and will wear them for the first time on the police excursion on the 27th.

—Brooklyn Baptist Sunday School had its annual outing yesterday at Carolina Beach. The day was ideal and both trips of the steamer Wilmington were well patronized. Last night a delightful moonlight excursion was run on the steamer up the river by Circle No. 8, of Fifth Street M. E. Sunday School.

—The steamer Duplin, now owned by Mr. J. A. Rowe and mastered by Captain Singletary, will bring an excursion to Wilmington from Smith's Bridge, on Northeast river, Friday, June 28th, arriving here at 5 P. M. that afternoon and returning Saturday at 1 P. M. The round trip tickets will be $1 each including car fare from Wilmington to Wrightsville Beach. The excursionists will bring a band of music and refreshments will be served on board.

CHARLOTTE WANTS LADDIES

Will Make an Effort to Get Next Firemen's Tournament.

If anybody believes that those Charlotte people are slow let them witness the following from yesterday's Observer:

"Why should not Charlotte secure the 1908 meet of the State Firemen's Association? asked a Charlotte man yesterday. The tournament this year meets in Wilmington in October and it can easily be secured for Charlotte if an invitation is secured and enough money is given to entertain them. It is Charlotte's time to secure this affair, in fact it was our time last year, but no invitation was extended. It has been held in Asheville, Winston, Greensboro and several other places since in Charlotte, which was seven years ago.

"Few meetings of any sort attract more attention or draw bigger crowds than these State tournaments . There are 3,000 members and the affair would draw 15,000 people. With the races and contests of all sorts and discriptions there is plenty to interest everybody.'"

AT THE ACADEMY.

Attractive Offering in Motion Pictures and Song.

With the change of programme this afternoon at the Academy is offered a collection of exceptionally fine films. The star of the merry aggregation is "Kathleen Mavourneen," and who has not heard of this pretty and interesting story.

The motion pictures present the stirring drama of Irish life in vivid and attractive manner and it will appeal to both the old and young. This film is one thousand feet long and is one of the best ever seen in Wilmington. Another film of beautiful nature is entitled "The Rescue at Sea." Then there is "Oh, That Cheese," which is warranted to be a screamer.

Besides the change of moving pictures the illustrated songs will also be changed. The Academy is a 5-cent theatre and babies and very small children are always admitted free. A cordial invitation is given the public to make use of the lawn park in front of the theatre.

MR. CLEVELAND IS BETTER.

Former President Had Acute Attack of Indigestion.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Princeton, N. J., June 20.—Former President Cleveland, who was taken ill several days ago with an attack of acute indigestion, was much improved today and his physicians do not anticipate any further trouble from the attack. Mrs. Cleveland informed the Associated Press today that his complaint is an old one and that Dr. J. D. Bryant, of New York, the family physician, and Dr. J. M. Carnochan, of Princeton, are always called in when the complaint becomes acute. She said his condition was at no time considered dangerous, and that he is now practically over the attack. Mrs. Cleveland was not able to say when Mr. Cleveland will be able to leave for their Summer home in New England. It is denied that an operation was performed.

A statement was issued from the home of former President Cleveland tonight, as follows:

"Mr. Cleveland is suffering from acute indigestion. The report that an operation has been performed upon him today for the removal of a malginant growth is absolutely untrue. No operation was contemplated. Mr. Cleveland is in no danger and will be around again in a few days."

Mrs. Cleveland is authority for the foregoing statement.

Dr. Bryant has returned to New York. Dr. Carnochan, the local physisian says that there is no cause for alarm, Mr. Cleveland is doing nicely and will be around in a few days.

Mr. Cleveland will be unable to attend the unveiling of the monument to Thomas F. Bayard, in Wilmington, Delaware, but the address he was to have delivered will be read by a substitute.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS ARE ONE.

Federals and Confederates Join in Monument Exercises at Petersburg.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Petersburg, Va., June 20.—An imposing bronze statue erected to the memory of Colonel Govan and other members of the Firty-Eighth Pennsylvania regiment of volunteers, who were killed in front of Petersburg during the Civil War, was unveiled today. The business district of Petersburg was lavishly decorated and many of the stores closed. The statue is located on the Davis farm on what is known as the Jerusalem Plank Road, near Fort Mahone, a short distance from this city.

Visiting Federal veterans were given the freedom of the city, and Confederate veterans and others vied with one another in entertaining them. Governor Stuart and staff arrived early in the day accompanied by about one hundred ladies and were received by a committee of the A. P. Hill Camp Confederate Veterans. Governor Swanson and staff arrived later. The parade to the scene of the monument was imposing. The services were opened with prayer by Rev. A. A. Long, chaplian of the regiment. General Stith Bolling, of A. P. Hill Camp Confederate Veterans, made the address of welcome, to which Adjutant General Thomas G. Stewart, of Pennsylvania, responded. The unveiling was by Miss Bessie Reid, daughter of R. A. Reid, of the regiment, and by Mrs. Otelia Mahone McGill, daughter of General William Mahone. Colonel Daniel Nagle, president of the Forty-Eighth Regiment Association, accepted the monument and presented it to the State of Pennsylvania. Speeches were made by Governor Stuart accepting the monument for Pennsylvania and placing it in the custody of the State of Virginia, and by Governor Swanson, accepting that trust. The programme also included an oration by R. A. Thurlow, a vetran, patriotic music by the Petersburg band, and prayer and benediction by Rev. Dr. Wm. McC. White, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city.

After the unveiling ceremonies the veterans marched in a body to the nearby historic crater battlefield, where memorial tablets were unveiled in tribute to the bravery of the troops on that field.

After the exercises at the monument, the governors of Virginia and Pennsylvania, escorted by their staffs and the Petersburg Greys, were driven to the residence of Mr. George Cameron, Jr., where a luncheon was served. At the same time Mrs. General Mahone and Mrs. Otelia Mahone McGill tendered a reception to the ladies accompanying the Pennsylvania party Later in the afternoon, the Petersburg lodge of Elks entertained the distinguished visitors, serving an elaborate menu, which was concluded by a toast to the governor of Pennsylvania by Congressman Lassiter.

Governors Stuart and Swanson, accompanied by their staffs, left for their homes this evening, each receiving a parting salute of seventeen guns.

BATTLE WITH MOONSHINERS

One Blockader Killed in Raid in Stokes County.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—In a battle between monnshiners and revenue officers in the mountains of Stokes county yesterday, it is reported that one moonshiner was killed and another wounded. This part of the story, however, is not confirmed. Ten of the illicit whiskey makers, however, were captured, and they are now confined in the jail of Surry countq in default of $1,000 bail each. The men captured are John Young, Oscar Smith, Ed Frazier, Frank Cardwell, Thomas Shelton and John, Jim and Oscar Williams, the three last named being brothers.

The men were rounded up by a large party of revenue officers, and returned. Before the fight took place having no opportunity to escape, opened fire which the officers returned. Before the fight took place the officers arrested a number of women and children to prevent their spreading news of the raid. These were released afterward.

It is said that the locality of the blockade distilleries in Stokes county was learned by a government detective who spent several weeks in the country in the guise of an inspector of rural delivery mail routes.

TRAVELERS' ASSOCIATION.

Several Important Amendments to By-Laws and Constitution.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., June 20.—Today's session of the Travelers' Protective Association of America was devoted to the consideration of proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws. The chief feature was the overwhelming defeate of a proposition to divide the office of secretary-treasurer held for 17 yars by Louis T. Lebaume, of St. Louis, and the best salaried office of the National body. The convention likewise refused to abolish the office of national organizer representative, and W. A. Kirchoff, of Louis, incumbent, will be reappointed. The national board of directors was increased from six to ten.

The convention voted down a proposition to have the National body pay the expenses of all delegates which would have meant an expenditure of over $40,000. A proposition to change the basis of representation from State divisions to the National convention from one delegate for every 100 members to one delegate for every 200 was defeated.

An amendment was adopted allowing $50 expenses for the organization of new posts where the membership exceeds fifteen; also one providing that the whole hand must be severed before full benefit for the loss of a hand is paid. Another amendment providing for the payment of 50 cents for transferring from one State division to another was adopted and the convention placed in the constitution provision for the payment of the actual expenses of the National officers while attending National conventions.

FOUR MEET PECULIAR DEATH

Laborers Pushed Boiler into Contact With Electric Wires.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 20.—Four Italian laborers were shocked to death and two others rendered unconscious tonight when a steel boiler, which the men were moving on a flat car, came in contact with a group of electric light wires in the yards of the Proctor and Gamble soap manufactury at Mariners' Harbor, Staten Island.

The boiler was being transferred from one building to another over the yard railway which ran between two poles and under the wires of the Richmond Light and Railway Company. Seven Italians composed the moving gang. Four of them were pushing with both hands against the boiler while the others held their hands on the wood truck of the car. They failed to observe that the stack,towing above the boiler would not clear the wires and pushed it against the obstruction. As the stack touched the wires, seven of the ten snapped while 5,000 volts of electricity passed through the boiler, against which the hands of four of the men were pressed. These men dropped dead. Dangling ends of the broken wires struck two other men, hurling them senseless to the ground. Late tonight they had not recovered consciousness.

The old officers were re-elected. W. S. Miller, Jr., of Charlotte, is president. The association has 167 members.

BOMB THROWN BY CRAZY MAN.

Catastrophe Narrowly Averted in Chamber of Deputies of Greece.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Athens, June 20.—An unknown man threw a dynamite cartridge from the gallery of the Chamber of Deputies during an all night session which began yesterday. The cartridge fell among the benches which were crowded with deputies, but a disaster was averted by the fuse becoming detached in the flight of the missile. The Finance Minister, who was speaking when the outrage occurred, rushed to the doors, with all the Deputies. The man who threw the cartridge was arrested and proved to be insane.

THE CRAFTY WOLF.

Stories of His Man Eating Feats Said to Be Untrue.

A skeptical person calling himself St. Croix has been trying to find out whether wolves and bears are maligned by the popular stories of their man eating ways and writes his conclusions for Recreation.

First he tried running down the stories told in newspaper dispatches. Foiled in this effort, he turned to the Indians. They knew the gray wolf, having wintered and summered with him. Had they ever known of an Indian being killed by one? N-no, but Mingan was very crafty and very much to be dreaded.

Quite so. But, once for all, had he ever to their knowledge killed a man? No, but they had heard— So it went—always the same intangible, unconfirmed rumor and the same absence of proof.

"Now for a few facts as to the wolf," writes St. Croix. "He can go eight days without food and can then eat forty pounds of meat at a sitting, so the Indians say. This is pretty fair for an animal weighing but eighty pounds. Yet we do not know the length of the sitting.

"The wolf will not venture on glare ice; he never crosses a lake until there is enough snow to hide the ice. To wetting his feet he is as averse as the domestic cat. He will not kill his game in the shelter of the forest, always driving it into some open place for the kill.

"When chasing a deer, he goes at a leisurely lope, sitting down at intervals to give the most dolorous and bloodcurdling howls. This drives the poor victim into a wild gallop and soon exhausts it, and as the wolf never tires he is sure sooner or later to catch up with the quarry.

"In winter the deer often makes for some wild rapid, into which it plunges, knowing that the wolf will not follow. Too often the deer drowns, but better such a death than one by the fangs.

"In summer a couple of wolves will secure all the deer they need by very simple tactics. Having put up the quarry, one wolf drives it by easy stages to some little lake—I speak now of the Laurentian country—and on reaching the shore the deer plunges unhesitatingly in, for its instinct tells it the enemy will not dare to follow.

"So on it swims, while the pursuer sits on his haunches and howls dismally, no doubt because he sees his dinner escaping. At length the tired deer drags itself wearily from the water and shakes the drops from its coat on the sun warmed strand. Then the companion wolf, which has waylaid its coming, springs at its throat, and when the first wolf joins him they have a gorge that makes them independent of fate for a whole week."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

There is a little wolf and a little rabbit in every man.

One way to be unhappy is to envy the happiness of others.

A lucky man always points with pride to his good judgment.

How many things there are in a grocery store you never will call for!

If you want to oblige a friend, do something for him his way instead of your own way.

Education is a great thing, no doubt, but the best housekeepers didn't get their knowledge out of books.—Atchison Globe.

The Impression He Gave.

His honor Judge Willis, on one occasion going home in an omnibus which landed him at an inn known as the Green Man, as usual passed the time in friendly discourse with the passengers. To one housewife who had been marketing he remarked that, owing to free trade, she was enabled to buy much more for her money than if she lived in a tariff country. To others he talked freely and dispensed counsel and advice indiscriminately. Arrived at his destination, he intimated to the conductor, "I want to get out at the Green Man." Accordingly the omnibus slowed down, but as he was leaving his seat a lady touched him on the sleeve and earnestly inquired, "My good man, don't you think you've had enough?"—London Tit-Bits.

"Old Hundredth."

"Old Hundredth" has been variously ascribed to Martin Luther, Dr. John Dowland and William Franck. Dr. Lowell Mason wrote quite a treatise on the old tune in 1852, saying emphatically that it was written by Guillaume (William) Franck in 1543. But later musical historians and antiquarians who have investigated more closely say it was composed by Louis Bourgeois, born about 1500 and died about 1572—some say in the massacre of St. Bartholomew, in 1551-52.—Musical Million.

Time's Changes.

"You," said she as she came down the stairs leisurely pulling on her gloves—"you used to say I was worth my weight in gold."

"Well, what if I did?" he asked, looking at his watch for the third time in fifteen minutes.

"And now you don't think I'm worth a wait of two minutes."

They Go Together.

"Any bottles? Any rags?"

"Queer combination you deal in, my friend."

"Not so queer. People as has bottles generally has rags."—Washington Herald.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Kenansville Eastern Carolina News: Tobacco is looking first rate throughout the county. The recent heavy rains have not injured the plants. There is a fairly good stand in most tobacco growing sections.

—Pender Chronicle: Beans and potatoes have been going forward quite freely for the past several days. Potatoes have been doing very well, but the bean market has been too low for profit. The wet weather has damaged the bean crop.

—Kenansville Eastern Carolina News: The News is glad to see that Mr. J. Sprunt Newton was elected city attorney of Fayetteville on last Monday night. This is indeed an honor for a young attorney and especially so when he comes from another county. We congratulate our friend.

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 19: Frank S. Price and Joseph Russo, officers from New York, are here to carry back with them Jesse Calloway, who is wanted for murder in the first degree. Calloway was arrested about ten days ago. The New York officers will leave with their prisoner tomorrow.

—Mount Olive Tribune: Mount Olive and Calypso will ship about 50,000 barrels of Irish potatoes this season. The shipping season opened last week, and up to date around ten thousand barrels have been marketed. The price has averaged something over $2.00 per barrel, although many barrels have sold for $3.00 and over.

—Sampson Democrat: The different hail storms in Sampson county (too numerous to mention) are a heavy loss to many farmers. They have been in narrow streaks, for the most part, and in many cases have about ruined the growing crops. Some of our farmers in the main path of the storms, have plowed up cotton and planted corn in its place; and some that was not plowed up looks very much like it will never come out.

Winston-Salem, June 19: The jurisdiction of magistrates in cases provided in the bill passed by the last legislature establishing a recorder's court in Winston will likely be tested in the Supreme court. One of Winston's leading lawyers has been employed to investigate and prepare a case for appeal to the highest court. The magistrates of the city are of the opinion that they have the same jurisdiction in criminal actions as the recorder, and they object to their authority being questioned and interfered with.

—High Point, June 18: A sensation was sprung here this evening when it was learned that the wife of Oscar Kearns, who was found dead in the woods near this place yesterday evening, had applied for a warrant charging Officer Sechrest with the killing of her husband. However, owing to the fact that the coroner has the matter in charge, no warrant can be issued just yet. It is claimed that the negro had been gambling and that he was shot twice while he was running by Officer Sechrest. Sensational developments are expected within the next few hours.

—Pender Chronicle: Our townsman, Mr. J. T. Collins met with quite a painful accident last week. He had started down town, and just as he reached the railroad crossing near his house, was struck by a freight car which was running down the main track, the engine and train being some distance in front. Mr. Collins says that he was looking at the train and did not see or hear the loose car until it hit him. He was struck on the forehead and the right shoulder and knocked senseless, his collar bone was broken and his right shoulder injured. It was a very narrow escape,and while we greatly regret that he was injured at all, yet we are thankful that it was not as bad as it came near being. A physician was called in and dressed his wounds, and we understand he is getting along nicely.

WHY IS SUGAR SWEET?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet? GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years. Price 50 cents.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 20.—Reports of rains or showers in the western belt caused weakness in the cotton market during today's trading and closed at a net decline of 6 to 15 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 250,000 bales. The opening was easy at a net advance of 1 point on July, but generally 2 to 8 points lower under lower cables and favorable weather reports and the active new crop months sold 7 to 9 points net lower right after the call. This was followed by a rally of 4 to 5 points on covering, but after some little irregulairity the market weakened again under liquidation through some of the large wire houses following the favorable weather forecasts and further advances from Southwest claiming beneficial showers and rain. July, which had been relatively firm early, eased off with the rest of the list and the active months generally showed a net loss of 13 to 16 points during the middle of the afternoon. This carried prices off to nearly the low point of last Tuesday and was followed by a slight rally as a result of covering. The close was 3 to 5 points up from the lowest on the more active positions.

Receipts at the ports today, 2,805 bales, against 5,961 last week and 4,313 last year. For the week, 30,000 bales, against 34,033 last week, and 32,102 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 92 bales, against, 8,420 last year, and at Houston, 133 bales, against 284 last year.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 20.—The tone of the dry goods market is better as a consequence of the continuance of seasonable weather. Cotton dress good lines for spring are being opened. Prices are at about last year's levels. Staple worsteds have the better call for mens' wear. The raw silk market is still in an uncertain condition, owing to the light stock and the doubtful reports of conditions in crop growing centers. The jobbing trade is more active. Clearance sales will be held in large houses next week.

GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

MONSTER SHIPS FOR OUR NAVY

Bids Opened For Two Huge 20,000 Ton Heavy Armored Battleships.

ONE WILL BE BUILT SOUTH

Newport News Shipbuilding Company Submits Lowest Bids—Massachusetts Concern to Build One of Great Fighting Machines.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 20.—The Newport News Ship Building Company, of Newport News, Va., with one bid of $3,979,000, and the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, Quincy, Mass., with a bid at $4,377,000 were the successful bidders today for building the big 20,000 ton battleships.

The officials of the Navy Department were gratified and surprised at the lowness of the bids, considering conditions in the industrial world. They pointed out that the bid of the Newport News Company for one of the great 20,000 ton ships was not only between $400,000 and $500,000 less than corresponding bids from any other company, but actually considerably less than the price submitted for building the 16,000 ten battleship Minnesota, and $300,000 less than the price paid for the battleship Louisiana. With today's bids from the shipbuilders were received special bids from the naval constructors at New York and Mare Island Navy Yards, prepared by the direction of the Department, as a check on the private shipbuilders. The figures of these bids have not been made public, but it its known that they are considerably in excess of the bids submitted by the private builders.

The bidding brought together the largest company of shipbuilders and other perons interested in naval construction that has been seen in the Navy Department for many months. The biddling itself was necessarily complex; the builders freely availing themselves of the Department's permission to submit all sorts of combinations and alternative plans. These included straight bids on the battleship of the standard type with reciprocating engines designed by the Navy Department itself, original bidders' designs, and combinations of the Department's hull plans with turbine engines, some with and some without separate cruising turbines. The Newport News Company alone submitted no less than seven sets of plans, and it may be noted that they were generally the lowest at all points and with all combinations. But as the law provides that no company shall receive the contract for more than one ship, the second lowest bidder also is assured an award in this case, the company being the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, Quincy, Mass.

The lowest bids in substance were as follows

Fore River Shipbuilding Company, Quincy, Mass., one ship on the Department's plans to be delivered in 36 months, $4,480,000. Hull and equipment on the Department's plans: Bidders' Curtis turbine engines, $4,377,400 (cruising turbines not required in this type).

Newport News Shipbuilding Company, Newport News, Va.: Department's plans, $3,987,000. Department's hull and equipment, bidders' Parsons' turbine engines; Thornycraft-Schulz boilers, $4,100,000, including cruising turbines. Another design, Department's hull and equipment, bidders' Persons' turbines—same boilers as above—$4,050,000. Design includes separate cruising turbines.

Another design, same hull and turbines, $4,100,000; including cruising turbines. Another design, same hull and turbines, $4,090,000, including cruising turbines. Another design, same hull and turbines, $4,125,000, including cruising turbines. Another design, same hull and turbines, $4,050,000, including cruising turbines.

The bids have been referred for examination to the board on naval construction which will recommend proper awards.

Bids were also opened for supplying the armor needed for the two big battleships. For the armor, which is divided into four classes on the basis of the difficulty of the shapes required, the Midvale Steel Company appeared to be the lowest bidder for the largest class; that is 956 tons of class A at $410 per ton. For this the Carnegie and Bethlehem Companies each bid $4.20. For 952 tons of armor in class B the Carnegie and Bethlehem Companies each bid $400 per ton, while the Midvale bid was $410. For 490 tons class C armor, the Carnegie and Bethlehem Companies each bid $400 and the Midvale $410. For 1,076 tons of class D armor Bethlehem bid $400; Midvale $410.

KILLED WHOLE FAMILY

Desperate Deed of Man at Jasper Florida.

Atlanta, Ga., June 20.—A special to the Journal from Jasper, Fla., says W. W. Barton, a carpenter, shot and almost instantly killed his wife, three children and himself at his home there last night. One victim, a child five years of age, surived long enough to tell that Barton did the killing. The shots were heard about 10 o'clock, but no attention was paid to the matter until early today when neighbors discovered Barton's body lying on the front porch, and that of his wife on the back porch. The children were found in a bed room, the pistol having been held close to their mouths in this instance and their faces were powder marked. Unhappy domestic relations were believed to have been responsible for the crime. Barton left home Tuesday and did not return until late Wednesday evening when he found the doors nailed against him. He battered them down and began his work of destruction.

STRIKE IS OFF IN NEW YORK

Satisfactory Settlement Between Telegraphers Union and Western Union and Postal.

SQUARE DEAL IS PROMISED

Western Union Practically Concedes All Its Employes Asked—Commissioner of Labor Neill Brought About Adjustment.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 20.—As a result of the visit of Mr. Neill, Commissioner of Labor, and following suggestions made by him, an adjustment of the difficulties between the Western Union Telegraph Company and its operators has been reached and there will be no strike. This morning Colonel Clowry, president of the Western Union, addressed a letter to Mr. Neill outlining the position of his company and this is admittedly satisfactory to all parties concerned.

The union leaders said they looked upon the letter as a concession by the Western Union of all their demands, with the exception of the eight-hour day, and the request that typewriters for operators be furnished by the company.

The Postal Telegraph Cable Company takes the position that it was directly involved in the controversy. Edward J. Nally, vice president and general manager, gave out the following statement today as to his company's attitude.

"I wish to say for the Postal Telegraph Company that the statement to the effect that this company refused to consider requests or complaints from its employes, either individually or as a committee, is entirely untrue. We have always been very glad to meet any of our employes and to consider any matter which they might care to present."

President Clowry's letter to Mr. Neill is in part as follows:

"As to the statements made by persons in no way connected with this company that the ten per cent. increase granted by the telegraph company on March first last has not been applied to all salaried telegraphers, I desire to say that the telegraph company announced this increase in good faith and is carrying it out in good faith and that if any case can be found in which the increase was not granted it will be corrected at once.

"The standard salaries for regular positions as established by the increase of March first will be maintained, and the company will pay to any man appointed or promoted to any position the salary attached to that position after that increase, and will pay to extra men the salaries in effect for their work, as of March first inclusive, of the ten per cent. increase."

"This company has not discriminated against, nor will it discriminate against any employe of the company because of affiliation or non-affiliation with any organization, and if it can be shown to me that any subordinate has dismissed or discriminated against any telegrapher because of affiliation with any organization, such telegrapher shall be restored to his position without prejudice.

"If any telegrapher feels that he has any grievance under any of the foregoing conditions, and if he cannot secure a satisfactory adjustment of his complaint with the officers of the company, we submit that matter to the arbitration of three parties, one to be selected by the telegraphers, one by the telegraph company, and the third to be selected by the two so chosen, and in the event that the two cannot agree upon a third arbitrator within one week, we will be very glad to have such third arbitrator chosen by the chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission and the Commissioner of Labor, acting jointly.

"As a further evidence of our entire willingness to deal fairly and preserve amicable relations directly with our own employes, any telegrapher who at any time has a grievance can take it up with his superior, either in person or, if he wishes, through any committee he may select from the other employes of this company in the same district."

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lexington, Va., June 20.—The Virginia Military Institute's final commencement exercises were held today in Stonewall Jackson Hall, where a large audience gathered to witness the 27 graduates receive their diplomas. The exercises consisted of announcing the distinctions in the four classes, delivery of diplomas and delivery of Jackson Hope medals to the first and second highest graduates. The valedictory address was delivered by Cadet G. R. Nichols, of Spartanburg, S. C., who later was awarded the first medal as the first distinguished graduate of his class, the second was awarded to Cadet Murray F. Edwards, of Kirkwood, Mo., second distinguished graduate of the class.

The address before the graduating class was delivery by Harry D. Flood, of Appomattox, representative in Congress from the Tenth Virginia District. The exercises were presided over by General Scott Shipp, who today retired from the superintendency of the institute. Later the new officers of the battalion for next season were announced. Tonight the military final ball took place.

WEAVING COILS AROUND HAYWOOD

State in Steuenenbrg Murder Trial Presents More Strong Circumstantial Evidence.

UGLY LOOKING RECORD

Copies of Telegrams and Bank Draft Corroberate Orchard's Story That He Was in Pay of Haywood and Pettibone.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boise, Idaho, June 20.—Unless there should be something unforeseen in securing a few final pieces of evidence the State will tomorrow close its case against Wm. D. Haywood, who is charged with the murder of Frank Steunenberg. This announcement was made today by Senator Borah, of the prosecution, and when Clarence Darrow, of the defnse took up the discussion of arrangement of time, he made it very clear that directly the State closed he and his associates would move the court for an instruction directing a verdict of acquittal. It is now anticipated that the State will close by noon; that the afternoon session will be devoted to argument of the expected motion of the defense, and if the court rules adversely on the motion, the opening statement in behalf of Haywood will be made by Mr. Darrow on Saturday.

The prosecution succeeded today in again showing a direct connection between the store of Pettibone in Denver and Harry Orchard at work on the Bradley crime in San Francisco and promised to make the connection with Pettibone personally by handwriting experts who will be called tomorrow. Original records of the Pacific Postal Telegraph Company were produced showing that in September and October, 1904, remittances of $97.50 and $48 respectively were made, the first by "J. Wolff," and the second by "P. Bone," from 1725 Stout Street, Denver, the address of Pettibone's store, to "H. Green," in care of Peter L. Huff, at 211 Taylor street, San Francisco.

W. V. McCartney, who was carrier of the Denver office of the Postal Telegraph Company in the Fall of 1904, came here from Cheyenne and today identified and explained the records that showed remittances. The records exhibited included the receipt and the application forms and telegrams of instruction ordering the payment of the money at San Francisco. "J. Wolff" and "P. Bone," both waived the identification of "H. Green" at San Francisco, and it is claimed that the handwriting in both instances is the same and that it is the same in the letter Pettibone wrote to the Mutual Life Insurance Company when Harry Orchard joined that corporation as a solicitor. The State also showed that while at Silver City, Idaho, January 18, 1899, Haywood declared that Steunenberg was a tyrant and a monster who should be exterminated, and by James Kirwan, acting secretary-treasurer of the Western Federations of Miners that Jack Simpkins and Marion Moore were made members of the executive board of the Federation in 1905, and that control of all expenditures made by the organization was vested in the president and secretary treasurer.

For the rest, it was a day of reading, with Senator Borah as first reader. Judge Wood admitted many of the strongly worded articles of the Miners' Magazine, in which Frank Steunenberg was bitterly denounced, and as one after another they were let in, Borah read them to the jury. These were admitted as showing the animus which the Federation held against Steunenberg and showing the animus against Justices Goddard and Gabbert, of the Supreme Court of Colorado, whom Harry Orchard swore he tried many times to kill.

The State introduced in evidence the decision of those judges on the Colorado eight-hour law and the habeas corpus applications of Moyer.

The defense insisted that Borah read every word in both decisions, and the first, which took 45 minutes to go over, was read before the noon recess and cleared the court of all save those whose duty required them to stay. The other was read with like effect soon before adjournment for the day. Then Attorneys Richardson and Darrow called for the dissenting opinion in the Moyer case as a matter of fairness, and demanded that Borah read that also. Judge Wood took pity on the weary attorney and said that if the defence wanted the dissenting opinion it must designate one of its counsel to read it. Mr. Darrow was selected as reader, but he will not be heard until tomorrow.

To practically every piece of evidence offered during the day the defense first offered objection and then made a motion to strike out and lastly took an exception to all evidence connected with the general conspiracy alleged by the State, the objections of the defense to the proposition that the acts shown were not binding on the defendant, that they were not connected with the Steunenberg murder and there was frequent objections to the evidence offered to corroborate the testimony of Harry Orchard, an alleged accomplice in the manner provided by the statute.

It was stated tonight that the prosecution had received a telegram from Denver showing that the date on the draft for $100 sent by Wm. D. Haywood to Jack Simpkins was December 21, 1905. Orchard testified that when Simpkins left Caldwell after the first attempt on the life of Frank Steunenberg, he asked him to get $100 for him. The unsigned letter which Orchard got at Caldwell after his arrest, and which he said was written by George Pettibone, one of the co-defendants, informed him that "that" had been sent to "Jack" on December 21, 1905, and that he should have received it. The State produced the drafts sent by Haywood to Simpkins and among them was one for $100 sent on some date in the "20's of December, 1905," but the particular day could not be made out because the second figure had been cut out by the perforator.

Detectives were detailed to trace further the $100 draft and the telegram from Denver today states that the bank records show that December 21 was the date of issue. The testimony is of such importance that the State may delay closing its case until it can produce it, or it may close with the reservation that it be permitted to make later proof.
